Our God, The Almighty Creator of the heavens and the earth, has blessed us mightily in Christ Jesus our Lord. He has blessed each of us individually. He has blessed each of our families and loved ones, and He has blessed us as a body of Christians. On this day we mark the changing of our calendars to a New Year of our Lord 2017. As has been our practice in recent times, the elders have selected a scripture from God's Word as a focal point in 2017. That scripture is Ephesians 2:10, and we will be reminded of this every week (hopefully daily) in our weekly newsletter. And, throughout this year there will be events and opportunities and activities in which every person who is a part of this body of Christ will be asked and encouraged to participate. As the workmanship of God, that is our role in life—to do good things that will reflect Christ's love, reverence for Almighty God, and the power of God's Holy Spirit working in us. Will you commit yourself to this endeavor?

Dearest Hwy. 36 Family,
Thank you so much for the gift card I received at the church Christmas party. Thank you for the many ways you bless my life. Thank you for allowing me to serve God and you as church secretary. I pray that I am as much an encouragement to you as you are to me. I praise God every day for the many opportunities he has placed before me in service to Him and to you. Looking forward to working with all of you in 2017!
Love, Janice Conway
