Meet Steve and Debbie Cordle

Steve Cordle was born in Montgomery, Alabama and grew up in Alaska. Steve graduated from the University of Alaska in Fairbanks with a B.A. in Criminal Justice and minor in history. Steve became a Christian in 1985 after studying the Bible with a college roommate and soon after began considering preaching the gospel full time. After working as a legal assistant and retail manager he decided to follow his passion and graduated from the Bear Valley Bible Institute of Denver, Colorado in 1994. Steve has preached in California, Indiana, Canada and Colorado. Currently he is a candidate for the Masters in Bible at Bear Valley and teaches part time at the Lamar Community College. He is the author of two books and several articles that were published in brotherhood journals. He is a member of Rotary International and a board member and chaplain of the Southeast Colorado Cancer Initiative. Debbie was born and raised in Denver, Colorado and attended Metro State College. She has worked in the grocery and banking businesses and as a call center operator. Debbie is a past member of Sweet Adelines Chorus and a sales consultant for Pampered Chef. Steve and Debbie are in the adoption process and will complete that when they settle into a new work. They enjoy reading, watching plays and are involved in community theatre.

All adult classes will combine in the auditorium this morning to hear Steve teach. Steve will also preach during morning and evening worship today. Everyone is invited to stay for a potluck meal after morning worship for fellowship with Steve and Debbie.
