Monterrey Day is this Coming Saturday, April 9th

What is Monterrey Day you ask? It's an annual gathering of those who support the work of the preaching school in Monterrey, Mexico. This year Hwy. 36 is hosting the event. We invite every member of our congregation to join us on this day and help make our guests feel welcome. David and Rosalinda Cardinas along with others from Mexico plan to be with us. The day will begin with breakfast at 8:00 a.m. in the fellowship hall and will conclude in the early afternoon. For more information, please see Steve Ellis, deacon of missions.
