We are very thankful and blessed to have 5 new men serve as deacons for Hwy. 36! Zach Hayhurst, Kole King, Jeremy Myers, Evan Simmons and Gary Vannoy were presented to the congregation last Sunday morning along with the 8 men (Brad Barron, Steve Ellis, Trent Gee, Rudy Johnston, Kevin Schulle, Bill Shaner, David Shaner and Tony Thompson) that are currently serving. Please pray for these 13 men as they work together to serve God and his family at Hwy. 36.

The Cisco church of Christ is hosting CrossConnect today at Lake Cisco Christian Camp. If any teens wish to go, they need to let Billy Berry know this morning. Plans are to leave the building at 2:45 and return around 8-8:30 Sunday evening.

Article for Teens and Parents

May 7th is "Cherokee Day" at Cherokee Children's Home. There will be a BBQ lunch, and open house for seeing the homes and facilities. It is also a Food Drive opportunity, to bring non-perishable foods for Cherokee Home. Billy Berry plans to attend, and any teen or parent is welcome to go with him.

Here's the challenge: each Teen bring one canned food item (canned vegetable, soup, etc.) between now and this Wednesday night. Place the cans next to the water fountain in the foyer, and Billy will see that they get transported to Cherokee Home.

Please let Billy know if you'd like to go on May 7th. Plans are to leave at 9 a.m. and return around 4 p.m. It will be a great trip together!

Kole and Christi King would like for you to come celebrate with them! Charly is officially theirs! The celebration is "Come and Go" this afternoon from 2-4 in the Hwy. 36 Fellowship Hall.

Next Sunday, May 8th we celebrate our Mom's!
