These are provided through our participation in “Heart to Heart”, the outreach effort that is mailed six times per year to about 1000 homes in our area. These brochures address a variety of topics related to Christian living, pointing out what God’s Word says about our various situations in life. “PARENTING VERBS” (Allen Webster) contains a wealth of encouragement to parents of children, to help parents understand how to model Christ as their children grow. Although every child is different, parents can successfully rear them by creating an atmosphere of acceptance and sense of belonging. If you are a parent, or if you know a parent—pick up “PARENTING VERBS”, and share its contents. You will be blessed! We want to tell you about these tracts so that you will use them yourself, or develop opportunities to give them to others. Please check out the brochure rack in the foyer, and use these tools often!

Be sure and pick up a special information sheet beside the newsletter this morning. There are several ways for all ages to serve in this local mission effort.

Moving Help Needed Tomorrow

Carol Rudolph's sister and brother-in-law are moving to Abilene. If you can help unload the moving truck at 9 am tomorrow morning, May 31st, please let Charles know today. The address is 2110 Independence in Heritage Park.

The beautiful lap quilt displayed in the foyer was lovingly made by our Ladies Bible Class for Lou Cox.

Ladies, due to a busy month, we will not have a Ladies' Hospitality Class in the month of June. Our next meeting will be in July in the home of Jan Berny.

Congratulations

Recently, Ted Pitzer traveled to Ozona to participate in the Crockett County 4-H Shotgun Shoot. Ted placed 1st in Intermediate Skeet with a personal best score of 46 out of 50. Check out the Clyde Journal article on the bulletin board.

Welcome Back!

We are so glad to have Kevin, Jessi and Taylor Grace McGuire back with us. They moved back here from Houston. More good news—they are expecting a baby in October.
