VBS Registration for our Children

This morning before the announcements are made at the end of the worship service there will be several young men passing out registration forms for VBS. These forms are for children infant through 5th grade. Please fill them out as soon as you get them and return them to the same young men as you leave the auditorium. Thanks!

Youth Mission Trip July 10-14th

The Youth Mission Trip to Cherokee Home for Children is coming up in a couple of weeks. Looking for 6-8 responsible young people and a couple of adult sponsors who are interested in serving others in the name of Christ. Lodging will be provided by Cherokee Home. There will be time each day to work, play, swim, and get to know other young people at the Home. Let Billy Berny know of your interest by Wednesday, June 29th.

New Deacon Responsibilities

We are pleased to announce that another of our newly appointed deacons, Jeremy Myers, has agreed to lead our Missions ministry. Jeremy has expressed a great interest in mission efforts undertaken by the Hwy. 36 congregation. Please give Jeremy your cooperation and encouragement in his new role.

We are also pleased that Steve Ellis, who previously led the Missions ministry for a number of years, has indicated his interest and willingness to have deacon responsibility for the Hwy. 36 church Benevolence ministry. Benevolence has been a major emphasis at Hwy. 36, and we appreciate Steve's heart for service to others in this regard.

2 New Bible Classes will begin Sunday, July 3rd

Adult 1 will begin "Choices" - Auditorium

Adult 3 will begin "My Role in the Church"
(stay tuned for location)

Adult 2 continues—Fellowship Hall

Update Your Church Directory

There is a new page for you to pick up from the table in the foyer for Chandler, Skyler and Reece Albergucci. We are so blessed to have them worship and service God with us at Hwy. 36.

Thank you to Randy Yeaman for taking their picture, publishing and printing the pages.
